Conference Presenters

Danadiva Bolen, MD is a biochemist, public speaker, actress, and author of eight books, which explore the essence of life in the field of homeopathy. In her second book, entitled “Cancer as a Turning Point,” she explores the idea that our cancer, our character, and our filters are the building blocks of our own healing story. She is a speaker at many conferences, workshops, and events, and her work is featured in many health and wellness magazines and websites.

Gary Malkin is an Emmy award-winning composer, performer, and public speaker, dedicated to bring music to the world in a way that offers creative experiences that impact the heart and soul, and is known for his annual healing conference. His work uses music as a tool for healing, and he has received numerous awards and accolades for his music and performances. He has produced five music CDs that are used in hospitals, clinics, and wellness centers. His music is also featured in many films and television shows.

Jan Adrian, MSW, Founder and Director of Healing Journeys, is a pioneer in the field of end-of-life care and has worked with thousands of patients and families. She is also a social worker and has been involved in many organizations that support hospice and palliative care. She is a member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology, the American Society of Clinical Oncology, and the American Society of Clinical Oncology, and has been involved in many organizations that support hospice and palliative care. Conference Objectives
• Facilitate networking among people and organizations with common goals
• Discover the impact of psycho-social and spiritual beliefs on the immune system
• Facilitate healing from within as an essential component of total health
• Differentiate between curing the body and healing the person
• People supporting friends or family touched by cancer or other illness
• Healthcare providers
• Women and men touched by cancer or any life-altering illness
• When we view illness in the context of the whole person (body, mind, emotions, and spirit), we see its transformative potential, as an awakening for the soul and spirit. Only then can we act as a healing and utilize its gifts.
